Detailed Itinerary

Day 1 (Thursday)

The trip departs Hamburg on Thursday, April 20th. Travel to Munich is by private luxury coach with A/C, DVD, and toilet. We play DVDs through the duration of the trip. We make one 45 minute stop. Upon arrival to Munich, your Bus2alps Trip Leader will point you in the direction of public transportation, Theresienweisse (the site where the festival takes place), and assist you in locating your accommodation.

Day 2 (Friday)

Friday we suggest you explore everything Munich has to offer: Munich's museums and attractions like the Dachau Memorial, Olympic Park and BMW World (situated next to each other), the amazing Deutches Museum or to the Theriesenweiss, the site of the Springfest. Plan accordingly if you expect to spend the better part of your evening at the festival.

The Springfest Festival kicks off Friday afternoon. The festival finishes for the night between 22:00-23:00. If you choose to not attend the festival, you can check out Munich's famous beer halls and great nightclubs. A great after festival club spot to check out is Kultfabrik that has over 40 bars and clubs in a converted warehouse area.

Day 3 (Saturday)

Wishing to return to the festival? Saturday is the most popular day for the locals! Bus2alps will have a group leaving after breakfast from the hostels in the morning to head to the festival. It is likely tables will be reserved by locals in the afternoon so it is important to get there early if you would like a table.

Those of you looking for a good meal away from the festival atmosphere, your Bus2alps guides will be happy suggest local venues and beer halls for an authentic Bavarian meal. If you choose to not attend the festival, Saturday is free to explore Munich at your leisure, recovering from the previous night's activities by lounging in one of Munich's beautiful parks, or checking out sites like Dachau, the Deutches Museum Olympic Park, or BMW World.

The festival will again close between 22:00-23:00. At night you can check out Munich's famous beer halls and great nightclubs. Again, a great after festival club spot to check out is Kultfabrik.

Detailed Itinerary

Day 4 (Sunday)

Sunday you will have time to explore Munich, or to head back for one more day of partying at the Theresienwiese. It is easier to obtain entrance into the beer tents on Sunday. There is enough time if you wake up early to head out to Dachau, or check out any of Munich's great museums.

Please be at the meeting point at the designated time for departure. We will make one 45 minute stop for dinner.

Activities

Fruhlingsfest: The main reason most of you chose this weekend to come to Munich, the festival will begin at 4:00 pm on Friday and from 11:00 am until 11:00pm on Saturday. Fruhlingsfest showcases two beer tents: Spaten's Hippodrome and the Augustiner tent. Entrance to tents is free.

Munich Bike Tour: Hailed by travelers as the best bike tour in Europe, Munich's Bike Tour is the ideal way to cover all of the major city sights be entertained and learn about the city. Stops on the bike tour include, Marienplatz, Hofbrauhaus, English Gardens, Chinese Tower, Surfer's Bridge, and Bavarian Parliament. Please note the Bike Tour has a limited number of spots and will be filled on a first come first serve basis. You can sign up on our website under Munich Activities.

Dachau Concentration Camp: Located a 20 minute ride on the train from downtown Munich, this humbling experience brings into perspective the atrocities that occurred during Nazi rule in World War II. Open 9:00 - 17:00.

Deutsches Museum: This interactive museum is the largest technological museum of its kind and is known for its historic artifacts that mark important steps in the field of science and technology. Open 9:00 - 17:00.

BMW Museum: The museum's exhibitions, remodeled every few years, takes visitors into the motoring world of yesterday. Open 10:00 - 18:00.
